

Welcome to PMI

Vital and forward thinking – focused on the needs of project management professionals worldwide; that's the Project Management Institute of today.

We've long been acknowledged as a pioneer in the field and now PMI membership represents a truly global community with over a million certified professionals, representing 214 countries. PMI professionals come from virtually every major industry including, aerospace, automotive, business management, construction, engineering, financial services, information technology, pharmaceuticals, health care, and telecommunications.

PMI membership opens up a world of opportunity – sharing ideas and experiences, accessing industry information, attending seminars and workshops on leading-edge topics, increasing your professional exposure through networking and project participation, and gaining leadership experience. You do not have to be a certified Project Management Professional (PMP) to join PMI.

PMI has over 300 chapters globally – whether your goal is to meet your peers, make new contacts, network or build knowledge our chapters are the local connection to the global PMI community.
